Pursuant to A.R.S. § 40-360.05 (A), the Arizona Center for Law in the Public Interest hereby files its notice of its intent to be a party to the above-captioned proceedings.

The Arizona Center for Law in the Public Interest is a domestic nonprofit corporation formed in part to promote conservation or natural beauty, to protect the environment, personal health or other biological values and to promote consumer interests. The Center was established in 1974 and since that time has been involved in numerous proceedings involving air and water quality issues. It has also participated extensively in proceedings at the Arizona Corporation Commission to promote consumer interests. It is currently involved in litigation against the Arizona Corporation Commission involving the Commission's adoption of the Electric Competition Rules and approval of a settlement agreement involving Arizona Public Service Company. Additionally, the Center is currently involved in litigation with the Salt River

1 Agricultural Improvement and Power District regarding the application of the Electric Power
2 Competition Act, A.R.S. § 30-801 et seq.
